

Advising for Learning Support English and Reading June 2024

ENGLISH/WRITING

Students who meet any of the below benchmarks may enroll directly in ENGL 1010 without the co-requisite ENGL 0815. In the catalog, these students will be designated as having Level 2 Placement in English.

- An 18 or higher on the English portion of the ACT within the past 5 years
- A 92 or higher on the ACCUPLACER Sentence Skills test prior to November 2018
- A 250 or higher on the Next-Generation Writing ACCUPLACER test November 2018 or later
- A 450 or higher on the Critical Reading portion of the SAT within the past 5 years
- Continuing NSCC students who've completed both modules of ENGL 0810 prior to fall 2015

To find the scores indicated above, log in to myNSCC, and then:

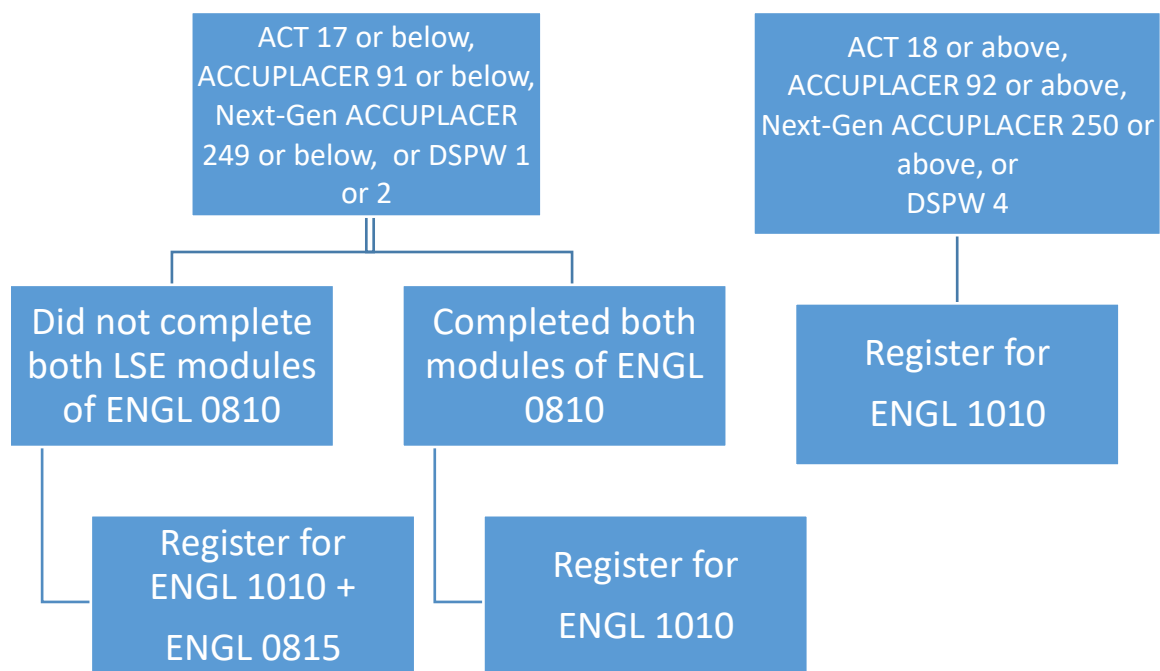

- Select "My Self Service"
- Select the "Faculty Services" tab
- Select "Student Information Menu"
- Select the current term
- Select "View Test Scores"
- Enter student information (A Number)
- ACT, ACCUPLACER, COMPASS, and learning support module information will be visible.
 - Students with a 4 for Developmental Studies Writing (DSPW) are at college level in English.
 - For students with a 1 or 2 DSPW score, check to see if they have completed any LSE/ENGL 0810 modules prior to fall 2015. The modules are listed as Writing Adequacy (Module 1) and Writing Mastery (Module 2).
 - Students with a "Y" next to both modules may enroll in ENGL 1010 without a co-requisite lab.
 - Students with an "N" next to one or both modules must enroll in ENGL 1010 and ENGL 0815.

Students with the scores below must enroll in ENGL 1010 and ENGL 0815:

- A 17 or lower on the English portion of the ACT within the past 5 years
- A 91 or lower on the ACCUPLACER Sentences Skills test within the past 5 years
- A 249 or lower on the Next-Generation Writing ACCUPLACER test
- A 440 or lower on the Critical Reading portion of the SAT within the past 5 years
- Continuing NSCC students who completed one or zero modules of ENGL 0810 prior to fall 2015

Co-requisite students MAY enroll in an online section of ENGL 1010 beginning 2024.

Flow-Chart:

Programs that do not require English/writing at the college-level:

Certain programs at NSCC do not require that students take college-level English/writing but do require that students achieve learning support competency in English. Students who have declared these programs majors may enroll in ENGL 0815 as stand-alone course:

Student enrollment in ENGL 0815 alone requires the permission of the Assistant Director of Student Success, the Director of Student Success, or the Academic Dean over Arts and Humanities.

READING

Students who meet any of the below benchmarks may enroll directly in a college-level class that has reading competency as a prerequisite. In the catalog, these students will be designated as having Level 2 Placement in Reading.

- An 19 or higher on the Reading portion of the ACT within the past 5 years
- A 85 or higher on the ACCUPLACER Reading Comprehension test within the past 5 years
- A 250 or higher on the Next-Generation Reading ACCUPLACER test
- A 460 or higher on the Critical Reading portion of the SAT within the past 5 years
- Continuing NSCC students who've completed both modules of READ 0810 prior to fall 2015

To find the scores indicated above, log in to myNSCC, and then:

- Select “My Self Service”
- Select the “Faculty Services” tab
- Select “Student Information Menu”
- Select the current term
- Select “View Test Scores”
- Enter student information (A Number)
- ACT, ACCUPLACER, COMPASS, and learning support module information will be visible.
 - Students with a 4 for Developmental Studies Reading (DSPR) are at college level in English.
 - For students with a 1 or 2 DSPR score, check to see if they have completed any LSR/READ 0810 modules prior to fall 2015. The modules are listed as Reading Adequacy (Module 1) and Reading Mastery (Module 2).
 - Students with a “Y” next to both modules may enroll in a college-level course with a Level 2 Placement in Reading as a prerequisite.
 - Students with an “N” next to one or both modules must enroll in READ 0815 + a designated college-level course (see list below)

Students with the scores below must enroll in READ 0815 and a designated college-level course:

- An 18 or lower on the Reading portion of the ACT within the past 5 years
- An 84 or lower on the ACCUPLACER Reading Comprehension test prior to November 2018
- A 249 or lower on the Next-Generation Reading ACCUPLACER test November 2018 or later
- A 450 or lower on the Critical Reading portion of the SAT within the past 5 years
- Continuing NSCC students who completed one or zero modules of READ 0810 prior to fall 2015

College-level courses that can be taken with READ 0815 as a co-requisite are listed in the college catalog in the course description for READ 0815 and are updated as needed.

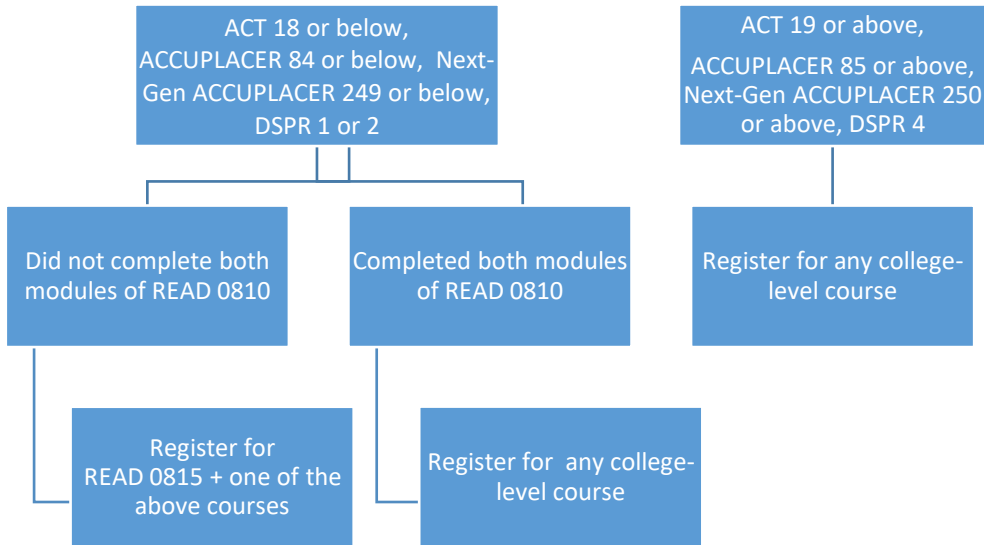

At the time of publication of this document, those courses are:

ART 1035	HIST 2010*	MUS 1030
PSYC 1030*	THEA 1030	ENGL 1010

Students may enroll in any modality of these paired courses beginning 2024.

For courses with an asterisk, students must be at Level 2 competency in writing/English prior to registration or enroll in both ENGL 0815 and ENGL 1010 along with the college-level course and READ 0815. Students may also need to be enrolled in ENGL 0815 with ENGL 1010, depending upon their scores in writing/English (see above).

Flow-Chart:

Programs that do not require reading at the college level:

Certain programs at NSCC do not require that students take college-level general education courses but do require that students achieve learning support competency in reading. Students who have declared these programs may enroll in READ 0815 as a stand-alone course.

Student enrollment in ENGL 0815 alone requires the permission of the Assistant Director of Student Success, the Director of Student Success, or the Academic Dean over Arts and Humanities.
